The image shows the second page of a guitar solo sheet music. It consists of ten staves of musical notation, each representing a string on a guitar. The notation includes various note heads (solid black, open circle, cross) and rests. Some notes have vertical stems pointing up or down. Measures are numbered at the beginning of each staff: 1, 4, 7, 10, 13, 15, 18, 21, 24, and 26. Measure 10 contains grace notes indicated by small dots above the main notes. Measures 13, 15, 21, and 24 feature sixteenth-note patterns grouped by vertical bar lines. Measures 13, 15, and 21 include slurs under groups of sixteenth notes. Measures 13, 15, and 24 contain grace notes marked with small diamonds. Measures 13, 15, and 21 also have three-note chords indicated by horizontal bar lines below the strings, with '3' written below each group of three notes. Measures 13, 15, and 24 end with a single note followed by a fermata (a dot over the note). Measures 13, 15, and 21 also have grace notes marked with small diamonds.

The image displays ten staves of musical notation, likely for a guitar or banjo, arranged vertically. Each staff has six horizontal lines representing the strings. The notation uses dots (solid) and crosses (x) to indicate note heads. Measure numbers are placed at the beginning of each staff: 29, 32, 35, 38, 41, 44, 47, 50, 53, and 56. Measures 32 through 56 include vertical bar lines and '3' underbrace markings, indicating a repeating pattern every three measures.
